Corcovado National Park Overnight Hiking Extension

START OF YOUR ITINERARY

DESCRIPTION/ACTIVITY	LODGING & MEALS
DAY 1. EARLY TRAVEL TO SIRENA FOR MORNING & AFTERNOON HIKING (DAY 7*)
After embarking on our boat in Puerto Jimenez, a 25-minute ride will have us exit the Golfo Dulce, entering the Pacific Ocean for another good hour along the shores of the Osa Peninsula until we reach the heart of the park. Once at the Sirena Ranger Station to drop off our luggage, your guide will take you on one of the 6 wildlife trails that surround Sirena Station. Your naturalist guide will help you spot as much flora & fauna as possible while explaining about the animals, plants, and trees you see. At noon we'll be back at the station for a delicious lunch and rest on the beautiful wooden deck looking over grassy fields, the jungle, and the ocean in the background. For the afternoon, you will be continuing the guided hiking, exploring the other trails for more natural encounters. As night falls over the jungle canopy, we gather for a welcoming dinner followed by a relatively early light-out for an interesting night's sleep. The station's sleeping area has individual bunk beds set on a wooden platform with a roof and open walls. This concept of open-air accommodations intensifies the experience of sleeping outdoors, including the inevitable nocturnal jungle sounds. More About Sirena Ranger Station Sirena Ranger Station is a rustic, wooden building with no frills, and lots of history.
